

Acyclic Dependency Principle is applied in the entire system whereby there are no cycles between packages.
Common Closure Principle is applied in the whole system whereby classes with similar functionalities are grouped into packages.

